About the Royal Queensland Art Society

RQAS Inc. is the oldest art society in Queensland, established in 1887.

Its' main role is to encourage and promote the cultivation and appreciation of the fine arts of painting, sculpture, architecture and the artistic crafts.

The RQAS runs various workshops, seminars and classes under the direction of established practising artists and teachers, as well as organising exhibitions and competitions. Members receive discounts on workshops, classes and exhibition entry fees.

Our Website has Artist Profiles for members, who also receive discounted rates for hiring the Petrie Terrace Gallery.

Members are kept informed through our regular newsletter of the various activities of the Society and of members' events around Australia.

The Society has an extensive library that is open during gallery hours: Tuesday to Saturday, 10am – 3.30pm.

On the last Sunday of each month we hold a members' meeting in The Petrie Terrace art space from 2pm- 4pm with a lecture or demonstration by a guest speaker.

Every second Wednesday of the month, a social meeting is held at the Queensland Art Gallery from 10.30am.
